BOTTLES AND VESSELS TO BE CLEANSSED

Ice cream and milk dealers read the following:

"Every person, firm, association or corporation, who receives milk cream or ice cream, or other dairy product in any can, bottle or vessel, which has been transported over, or is to be returned over any railroad, shall immediately upon emptying such can, bottle or vessel, cause the same to be thoroughly washed, cleansed and aired, and every violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor."

The above writing between quotation marks is an excerpt from the statutes of Utah. Commissioner Hansen of the Pure Food Bureau is determined to enforce this law, not only with ice cream men, but also those sending milk and cream to the creameries. This article is published that all may have fair warning, none will be immuned. FRED TURNER Inspector.
